

Employment & IP - Under Review

DATE: Monday 31 May 2010
TIME: 4:15pm for a 4:30pm start, until 6pm
with networking drinks afterwards
VENUE: Kreisson Legal
Level 30
201 Elizabeth Street, Sydney
CHAIRPERSON: Irena Reiss, Senior Associate, Kreisson Legal PROGRAMME: Forensics on Employee Data
Presenter: Chris Hatfield, PPB

Chris Hatfield is a Senior Manager at PPB Forensics Sydney with over nine years experience in IT Forensics. Chris's extensive exposure to employee IP theft includes presenting on employee IP theft Investigations Techniques, employee IP protection Mechanisms, and most importantly; the hands-on investigation of employee IP theft Incidents. Chris is one of very few individuals with such extensive experience in this specialist field.

Employer Restraints of Trade & Protecting Confidential Information

Presenter: Carmen Champion, Barrister, St James Chambers

Carmen Champion was called to the Bar in 1999. She was previously a partner of Corrs Chambers Westgarth where she was the Partner in Charge of the Sydney Technology and Intellectual Property Group for 10 years. She specialises in commercial litigation, in particular disputes relating to the protection of intellectual property (including the protection of confidential information), misleading and deceptive conduct, and franchising.

Risk Managing Your Employee Contracts and Policies

Presenter: Ilona Teremi, Kreisson Legal

Ilona has more than ten years experience working with corporate clients developing robust employment policies and contracts to assist businesses in risk managing employee disputes.

RSVP

excellence@kreissonlegal.com.au
or (02) 8239 6500 by Friday, 21 May 2010
Places are limited.

The presenters will spend 30 minutes on each of these topics to give an overview on how these issues might impact your business.

Seminar!